The endless breadlines we are seeing in the USA would be here if it were not for the CERB program which @erinotoole has already said does not work and would eliminate.

The CERB has paid out $43.51 billion to 8.41 million people as of June 4. The parliamentary budget officer estimates in a new report that it will cost the federal government $17.9 billion to provide eight extra weeks of payments through the CERB real numbers.

It's funny that after admitting the hold up on #CERB was entirely about the oil industry and the carbon tax, conservative MPs & MPPs seem to have a burr in thier bum now that not all Canadians affected or otherwise, qualify for CERB The story changes daily @Canpoli @Onpoli @ableg

I don't think extending an existing program counts as voted for new aid. Interesting that when CEWS was 3x the budget of CERB, Trudeau was quick to double it for his corporate buddies over a month ago. But unemployed people pinch pennies waiting for him to extend the CERB 🙄

We are at War, somehow the CPC can not equate the cost of doing bussiness, with what must be done to ensure the well being of our citizens. They are nothing but DF's. Polliver proposes transitional payments to wean us off CERB, simply increase minimum wages. TADA problem solved.

I lived 3 weeks without income coming in..now the CERB website is all fucked up & sending my boss & I more money than they should..& knowing damn well the Government will want it back when this is all over..SO if you got more than you should have, do NOT spend it #CERB #COVID19ON

Just so you know, it's not that easy to get CERB and they do investigate each claim. Only reason I say this is because I've been dealing with CERB and Employment Insurance for months trying to get some government support while in a referred job training program.

@MzmeriABCA

So I just got a call from Revenue Canada looking for my son to verify his eligibility for CERB at the time. So I said to her maybe you should be tracking down those 830000 people who hadn't filed taxes or the fake SIN numbers. She actually laughed out loud & said there are trying

Unequal Economic Impacts of COVID

@fairwagesnow

Women and low-wage, racialized workers in precarious employment are hit the hardest by COVID job losses. For these households, CERB was financial lifeline. With CERB ending, do you think the new EI program will be enough to live on? #onlab #15andFairness

@WolfAndWyrn

Canada's Covid Emergency Reponse Benefit program has ended, and Canadians on disability pensions still haven't seen the one time $600 payment the government said they were authorizing back in June. Disability pensions pay HALF of what was deemed necessary for CERB. @JustinTrudeau

Some CERB Recipients: I make more on CERB than I do at my actual job, it's nice being financially stable.

Businesses: So are you going to come back to work?

CERB Recipients: Sure, if you pay me the value of my labour.

Does the CERB drive the wrong behaviour in some cases? Will the CERB program be tweaked before extending 8 weeks? Students now have the option of $1900/month working 35 hrs/week or $2000/month w CERB. I told my 2 daughters, if you get a job, you work-but will others say the same?

No one begrudges anyone for receiving CERB. What irks people is when their job calls them back and they'd rather stay on CERB. My Son can't get bar workers to return to work because of CERB. I feel bad for your situation. Didn't CERB get extended to July. We should stand together.

We get the cerb money and have to pay some back by tax year. And I'm fine with that as long as I have a roof over my head with food. Covid numbers are rising which means another shut down and I'll lose everything if cerb isn't back.

An aerial view of a city street intersection, likely in Vancouver, Canada, featuring a large, modern glass-walled building on the left and a large, dark, rectangular building on the right. A statue is visible in the distance. The street is mostly empty, with a few people walking on the sidewalks. A large black rectangle with the text 'Thank You' in white is centered over the image.
